Bidding Your Foolish Self Good-Bye

FOR GRAND JURY Alleged Assailant of E. H. Gordon

ness Stand. INJURED MAN TELLS STORY

Does Not Go on Wit-

Head Enveloped in Bandages. Which Conceal Blows on Skull and Temple.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Portsmouth, Va., March 22,-Chester I reston, alias Dwyer, as it appeared the police docket, alleged assailant of E. H. Gordon, an assistant cashier of the Seaboard Air Line Railway, and man who is accused of having gotheld for the grand jury in the flustings. Court, afte ra preliminary hearing to-day in the Police Court, Gordon, who proved to be an excellent witness, told the story of the assault in a manner which left little to be brought out in the cross-examination by Preston's counsel, Strorney R. H. Bagby, Gordon's head was completely enveloped in bandages, which concealed the six hammer blows on his skull and temple. Preston was not put on the wit-

Judge L. R. Watts, general counsel for the Seaboard Air Line Raliway; his law partner, Goodrich Hatton, and S. R. igrittingham, of the legal department of the Seaboard Air Line, were specaters at the hearing, but took no part a the examination, which was conduct-d by Commonwealth's Attorney Bland, Gordon said Preston struck him on back of the head with the hammer and told Gordon he was going

You are doing a lot for $2,000," Gor den said. "I need the money," Preston replied, according to the witness. He then got Gordon down, after the latter had getten is another blow with his list, and tied his lands and feet, then dragged him back to the leebox and fastened him.

On this page is a picture. Study it young man, and see if you can do what the young man in the picture is doing.

In the middle picture he is walking down the steps, hidding good-by to thre of his "selves" in the three pictures above.

And in the pictures above, his former selves are watching him in surprise. He is hidding good-by to the self that was foolish and gambled, to the self that was foolish and drank to excess, to the self that wasted time

The picture has a good suggestion for boys and young men. Let them remember THAT IT IS POSSIBLE TO CHANGE OURSELVES. Remember, that until the last day, man may get rid of the old self and

One of the great scientists in the early days began life an out-and-out fraud. He made his money cheating, pretending that he could change has a matel into gold.

He lived to get rid of that cheating, worthless, dishonest self, and to become a real and valuable scientist.
Lucky the man who can leave his worthless self behind as this young

And lucky especially the young man who makes up very thing to-day, without waiting for to-morrow.

MEXICAN SITUATION AGAIN VERY SERIOUS

REGARDED MADERO AS HERO

WINSOR

and what little popularity he enjoys from the moneyed class. It is felt by these men that the overthrow of Hueron, with an expressed desire by the people as a whole for a more demopeople as a whole for a more demo-cratic government, would lead to speedy intervention by the United States. Even though President Wil-son did not desire it, the move would open Display of Desire to Throw Gordon declared that before leaving his Preston Which hammer that trees to the complex with the hammer that trees to the complex with the hammer that trees the complex with the money. The later was called through the does as Pteston was leaving.

When asked what he understood his constitution of the hammer that the money derived in the wind the money of the hammer that trees the money that if he does not tell who took the money. Preston would later divide with thin.

Daring Sally by Pederals.

Nogales. Wen though President would lead to speed a later though the money that if he does not have the country. Outside of the word with the move that if he does not tell who took the money. Preston would later divide with thin.

Daring Sally by Pederals.

Nogales. Wen though President move would be forced upon him by European power the surface of the state troops in North the tree that the power than the does not be a pownise that if he does not be a pownise that if he does not be a pownise that if he does not he was the country. Outside of the secretion of Campeche and the more or less open secession of Campeche and the more or less open secession because as a surface of the state troops in North the tree that the pownish that the does not have the pownish that the state troops in North the surface of the state troops in North the state

Tense. Mex. March 22—Governor and and when he was shot he became the Tense. On the west coast, to day liberated all prisoners from the health tentians, and with a small escort started to join the constitutionalists forces in Sinalca.

The peens see in Huerta another military dictator, and a return to the methods of the Diaz government. They have the forces in Sinalca.

The peens see in Huerta another military dictator, and a return to the methods of the Diaz government. They have the force in Sinalca.

The peens see in Huerta another military dictator, and a return to the methods of the Diaz government. They have the force in Sinalca.

Arrivals here are loud in their Uncasiness in Mexico City.

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.]
Mexico City, March 22.—Much un-dispatched from San Luis and 100 men under Colonel Aguirre Guariola from Monterey to reinforce the government Sets Out to Meet Enemy. Naco, Ariz., March 22.—Combined State troop forces at noon to-day be-

Late advices from Saltillo say that the rebels in force have attacked that city. One thousand men under com-mand of General Caso Lopez have been

General Ojeda at once left the Mexican border town and set out to meet the enemy. His ranks are depicted by desertions and the Huerta commander has no more than 350 mmn, while four groups of the State troops aggregate Although the State troops suddenly abandoned their avowed plan of first attacking Cananea, Ojeda was not caught napping. At once his small army set out in two columns, the rapid firers to the east and the motars rapid firers to the east and the motars and cannon to the west.

The State troops also advanced in two groups. Bracamonte and Calles, who were defeated previously below Naco, moved in from the east with four machine guns. From the west, General Obregon and Colonel Cabral advanced with a battery of field pieces.

After the Federal advance had exchanged a few shots with the State troops, Ojeda gave the word to retire into Naco, and the Federal troops retreated within the fortifications.

The Federal commander apparently had expected to cut his way through the State troops' lines, but saw it was the State troops' lines, but saw it was hopeless, on account of the superior number of the enemy.

Residents of the Mexican town are rushing to this side, where the patrol of the Ninth and Fifth Cavalry is on Bodies Hanging to Poles.

El Paso, Texas, March 22.—Hanging from railway telegraph poles at Sauz, between Chihuahua City and the border, are the bodies of Mariano Rodriguez, former Police Chief Juarez and

Lower Classes See in Huerta
Return to Methods of Diaz Government.

Diaz, who is a military man, and not a politician. The lower class, comprising an overwhelming majority of the inhabitants of the republic, have shown no great loyalty for the Huerta regime.

Huerta has derived his sole support

Huerta has derived his sole support

Taunting their victims with this moto, Federal troops last Wednesday removed Esquir and Rodriguez from the Juarez jail. They had been held for "political offenses." It was alleged that Esquir had written for a weekly newspaper blaming General Huerta for the slaying of Madero.

An unidentified political prisoner also group consisted of about 200 men. The fight occurred Wednesday and Thurs-

Had Serious Lung Trouble---Now Well

Arrivals here are loud in their charges that a general suppression of news is being conducted by the Huerta government and others, including several ambassadors of foreign powers, who sympathize with Huerta or at least with military dictatorship. The situation is likened to a volcano with an eruption imminent.

Unersiness in Mexico City.

Somehow there exists a vast amount of skepticism as to the possibility of curing skepticism as to the possibility

Mexico City, March 22.—Much uneasiness exists here to-night over the many rumors of antigovernment manifestations, which it is said will mature within a few hours, and especially over the startling discoverey of a plot for an attack upon the Penitentiary tomorrow.

It is gaid that this attack was planned by Maderistas, and several nundred prisoners would have been freed had it been successful.

The government to-night distributed a heavy mounted patrol throughout the city and extraordinary preclutions are being taken to prevent any deniance of authority.

1819 Susquehanna Ave., Phila., Pa.

"Gentlemen: For two years I was afflicted with hemorrhages of the lungs, the number of which hemorrhages of the lungs, the number of with hemorrhages of the lungs, the number of with hemorrhages of the lungs, the number of with hemorrhages of the lungs, the number of which hemorrhages of the lungs, the number of which hemorrhages of the lungs, the number of with hemorrhages of the lungs, the number of which he marks and with hemorrhages of the lungs, the sumber of which he marks and with hemorrhages of the lungs, the number of which he marks and with hemorrhages of the lungs, the number of which he marks and with hemorrhages of he lungs, the number of which he marks and with physician advised another climate, as to remain a would probably he faint.

Baylor-Yarborough Co., Inc.

Our Store Is Bedecked With

Spring Attire!

Our Garments Speak the Latest Words from Fashion's Realm. So varied, bewitching in style, that choosing becomes a pleasure rather than a burden.

The Technical Goodness of This Store's Ready-Mades

Why Women's Suits from Baylor-Yarborough o. are best and wear longest.

Suits are not always what they seem. Many stores sacrifice QUALITY in order to have something to sell at a price, and say, "NEVER MIND THE WEAR." Here it is different. We insist on quality, on shape retaining quality, on perfectness of finish.

BEWARE OF SENSATIONAL BARGAINS "THERE IS A REASON."

Remember, we give you value-always valuenothing but value.

If it is a Suit, Dress or Coat that you want you owe it to yourself to thoroughly inspect our garments, then make your choice.

Ladies' and Misses' Tailored Suits at $12.50 to $50.00 each one reveals beauty and charm, having received the stamp of approval by the best known

Whether it be a $12.50 or $50.00 Suit the value is there. We only ask you to see them.

SPECIAL SHOWING OF SPRING DRESSES

The smartest Spring Dresses in Richmond-the cleverest effects in beautifully draped Crepe Meteor and Crepe de Chine Spring Dresses, distinctively original in style. You will surely fall in love with our special models at $19.50, $22.50, $25.00 and $27.50

Equal to what you may see at a third more. These come in the very new colorings, and are

Baylor-Yarborough Co., Inc.

"What has happened," said General Diaz, "has been a hard lesson both for Mexico and the United States. I do not know President Wilson, but if he continues President Taft's policy, Mexico soon will be friends with the United are printed the strange words, "Solado de part"—soldier of peace.

Taunting their victims with this

OBITUARY

Miss Kate Hawkins.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Fredericksburg, Va., March 22.—Miss Kate Hawkins, aged forty years, died yesterday at her home in Spotsylvania County of consumption.

Samuel Yunnaily.

Crewe, Va., March 22.—Samuel Nunhally, aged seventy-eight years, a former Confederate soldier, died at his home in the county, near here, at 5 o'clock this morning. He leaves, he sides his wife, three sons, Henry, Monroe and Paul Nunnaily, two daughters, Mrs. Annie Cottem and Mrs. Lilliam Wampler. The interment will be in the Crewe Cemetery. His former Confederate comrades will be the pall-beavers.

ers, whose subjects have many millions of dollars invested in Mexican enterprises.

While the feeling among the peons is growing daily, according to me who are in close touch with the Mexican eincomplete in the close touch with the Mexican stuation, it is not expected that any open display of the desire to throw off the military dictators will occur before the peons which are scheduled for July. In the meantime, the people will wait patiently until it is determined whether the elections will be held then, and if they are, what the result is. It is known that litertation and the close not intend to issue the final call for an election, nor permit it to be completely pacified. How long it will take to secure this condition is a matter of speculation. But the outlook at present for a speedy settlement of all difficulties is far from the best.

While the provisional government is as thrown the full strength of the army against the rebels, who are active through the northern states, Compaced has taken advantage of the unpreparedness of Huerta and openly.

DEATHS

STAFFAN.—Died. in Montreal, Can-ada, March 16, JOHN STAFFAN, for-merly of Richmond, Va. He leaves one son to mourn his loss.

LAYTON.—Died. Saturday, March 22, 1913, at 8 A. M., at the residence of her father, N. E. Anderson, 5981-2 North Twenty-sixth Street, AGNES B. LAYTON, in the twenty-seventh year of her age.

The functal will take place TO-MORROW (Monday) AFTERNOON at 3 o'clock from Leigh Street Baptist Church. Interment will take place at Dispatch, New Nent County, on arrival of the 4:30 P. M. Southern Bailroad train.

HALL.—Died. March $, 1913, at 4:20 If. M., at her home in Indianapolis, Ind., MARTHA E., wife of Dr. Jabez Hall, former paster of Seventh Street Christian Church. Mrs. Hall, besides her husband, leaves four daughters—Misses Elsie, Genevieve and Mrs. L. J. Wood, of Indianapolis, and Mrs. W. G. Maury, of Richmond, Va. Funeral at Indianapolis March 11, 1912.

FUNERAL NOTICE

AWRENCE.—The funeral of HARRY LANDON LAWRENCE took place at Emmanuel Church, Henrico County, Thursday at 4:39 P. M. He died after a brief illness Wednesday, March 19, 1915, at 6:30 A. M., in the home of his parents, Richard G. and Belle Ladd Lawrence, in Chesterfield County, aged twenty-two months.

IN MEMORIAM

McGUFFIN —In sad but loving remembrance of my dear brother, HENRY UNITED STATES FOR THE EAST-LEE McGUFFIN, who died one month ago to-day

Dear brother, we shall meet when this life is past.
Under the down and dew.
And light will break on our life at When we dream in the dark with you.

Lonely on the earth I rosm.

In the matter of JAMES JENNESS, Bankrupt.

Bankrupt.

Bankrupt.

CREDITORS

CREDITORS

Of Richmond, in the County of Henrico, and district aforesaid—Bankrupt.

Lonely on the earth I cosm. Like the wind, the storm and the But where you dwell shall be my

And by your side will be my grave.
By his brother:
JOHN D. McGUFFIN.

In that far off lonesome graveyard.
Where the trees their branches wave,
Lies our dear and loving uncle
in his cold and silent grave.
By his little nices,
MATTIE AND ROSA.

MASTON.—In sad but loving remembrance of my uncle, C. C. MASTON, who died two months ago. Sleep on, dear uncle, so free from all pain, Wake him not, sweet spirit, to suffer Again.

He is resting so peacefully, oh, let him sleep on;
His sufferings are over, his troubles all gone.

Ey his niece,

MRS. FANNIE McGUFFIN.

WIESNER.—In sad but loving remembrance of my dearly beloved father. GUSTAV ROBERT WIESNER, who entered into the "Haven of Rest four months ago to-day, November 23, 1912, John v. 28, 29.

GUSTAV R. WIESNER.

STODDARD.—In sad but loving remem-brance of my husband and our father. TRUMAN STODDARD, who died seven years ago Tuesday, March 25, 1906.
What is all this world without you:
Naught but darkness fraught wi
pain:
Yet we cannot, dearest loved one,
Call or wish you back again.

Call or wish you back again. BY HIS WIFE AND DAUGHTERS.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

AT A MEETING OF THE BOARD OF directors of the West End Back, of Richmond, Inc., held to-day, the fol-lowing resolution was unanimously adopted:

lowing resolution was unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, under the providence of God our president and friend has been called from labor to his reward, therefore be it.

"Resolved. That in the death of ANTON J. STAUDE we have lost a man of highest integrity, conscientious in the discharge of duty and ever ready to serve us to the best of his ability.

"We shall miss his wise counsel, cheering companionship and cordial co-operation in every plan looking to the development of the bank.

"He was the father of this institution, and no stockholder or officer gave more of his time and means to its success.

"Resolved. That we desire to record the high esteem in which he was held by this board, that a copy of this resolution he forwarded to the family, and that it be published in one of the daily papers."

CHAS, K. WILLIS,

Eichmond, March 20, 1913.

Richmond, March 20, 1913.

Too Late for Classification

LOST, BOSTON TERRIER, BRINDLE and white, screw tall. Reward if returned to 415 West Franklin.

Bankrupt Motices

ERN DISTRICT OF VIRGINIA:

rice, and district aforesaid—Baha-rupt.

Notice is hereby given that on the 19th day of March, A. D. 1913, the said JAMES JENNESS was duly adjudicated bankrupt, and that the first meeting of his creditors will be held in my office, Rooms Nos.802 and 803 American National Bank Building, Richmond, Va., on the 31ST DAY OF MARCH, A. D. 1913, at 16 o'clock in the forenoon, at which time the said creditors may attend, prove their claims, appoint a trustee, examine the bankrupt, and transact such other business as may properly come before said meeting.

THOS. B. SNEAD.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES FOR THE EAST-ERN DISTRICT OF VIRGINIA:

In the matter of JOSEPH CORDARO, Bankrupt. | No. 1259. In Bankruptey.

In the matter of JOSEPH CORDARO.

Bankrupt.

NOTICE OF FIRST MEETING OF CREDITORS.

To the creditors of JOSEP CORDARO, of Richmond, in the County of Henrico, and district aforesaid—Bankrupt;

Notice is hereby given that on the 19th day of March. A. D. 1913, the said JOSEPH CORDARO was duly adjudicated bankrupt, and that the first meeting of his creditors will be held in my office. Rooms Nos. 802 and 803, American National Bank Building, Richmond, Va., on the 3D DAY OF APRIL. A. D. 1913, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, at which time the said creditors may attend, prove their claims, appoint a trustee, examine the bankrupt, and transact such other business as may properly come before said meeting

THOS. B. SNEAD.

Referee in Bankruptey.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES FOR THE EAST. ERN DISTRICT OF VIRGINIA:

In the matter of WAYNE A. CHILDREY & LEE B. HANCOCK, partners, trading as Childrey-Sunday Co., and individually, Bankrunts.

NOTICE OF FIRST MEETING OF CREDITORS

To the creditors of WAYNE A CHILDREY AND LEE B. HAN cock, partners, trading as Childrey, Sunday Company, and individually of Richmond, in the County of Fien tree and district a forest of Fien and district aforesaid-Bank rico and district aloresan rupt:

Notice is hereby given that on the 19th day of March, A. D. 1913, the said WAYNE A. CHILDREY AND LEES E. HANCOCK, partners, trading as Childrey-Sunday Co. and individually, were duly adjoudledated bankrupts, and that the first nucting of their creditors will be held in my office, Rooms Nos. 802 and 803, American National Bank Building, Richman National Bank Building, Richman Value of the SIST DAY OF mond, Va., on the SIST DAY OF mond, Va., on the 31ST DAY op.
MARCH, A. D. 1913, at 19 o'vlock in the forenoon, at which time the said creditors may attend, prove their claims, appoint a trustee, examine the bankrupts, and transact such other husiness as may properly come before said meeting.

THOS E SNEAD

THOS B. SNEAD, Referee in Bankruptcy, March 21, 1913.

proved within the last four months by the purchase of over 2,000 certificates by permanently located citizens. We invite you to call when desiring to negoti to call when desiring to negotiate a loan or to save systemati-

"THE MORRIS PLAN"

Fidelity Loan and Savings Co.,

1107 East Main Street Interest on Savings Safe Deposit Boxes for Rent

Rebels Attack Saitillo.

Mexico City, March 22.—Government troops and a force of rebels began fighting to-day at Saitillo, the capital of the State of Coabulla, according to private advices received this after-

(Signed) HOWARD L. KLOTZ.

One precious to our hearts has gone, The voice we loved is stilled. The place made vacant in our home Can never more be filled.